Part 2 Monologues

Monologue 1

If you have a chance to take a trip to Hawaii, make sure you visit a store called Matsumoto Shave Ice, which is located on the north shore of the beautiful island of Oahu. On a warm sunny day, the store sells over 1,000 servings of shaved ice to locals and tourists from around the world.

It was Helen and Mamoru Matsumoto who opened the store in 1951. At first it was an ordinary grocery store. In 1956, the Matsumotos decided to purchase an ice-shaving machine from Japan. They learned to make different kinds of syrup, and started serving shaved ice in their store. It became popular with the arrival of surfers from California in the 1960s.

In 1976, the Matsumotos' third child, Stanley, took over the business. Stanley's brother and sister helped him at the store when it was very busy. Stanley expanded the business and they now also sell all kinds of souvenirs. Their T-shirts are almost as popular as the shaved ice.

Question 59. When did the Matsumotos start selling shaved ice?

- a) In 1951
- b) In 1956
- c) In 1960
- d) In 1976

Question 60. Which one of the statements is correct about Matsumoto Shave Ice?

- a) Most of their customers are tourists from Japan.
- b) Their ice-shaving machine came from Japan.
- c) The present owner has two brothers and one sister.
- d) Their T-shirts have become more popular than their shaved ice.

Monologue 2

There are many people who are not aware that the word Broadway has two meanings. The first meaning of the word “Broadway” refers to a wide street that can be found in Manhattan, an island that is in the central part of New York City. It is a major road that stretches about 20 kilometers from the southern part of Manhattan to its northernmost tip, and it was a well-known trail that was used by Native Americans in the 17th century. Its current name, Broadway, was given by English settlers.

Nowadays, however, some people know Broadway not only as a major street, but also as a billion-dollar theater industry in the center of Manhattan. For example, in the year 2018, ticket sales for Broadway shows reached a total of about 1.6 billion dollars. In addition, there was a total number of 13.8 million people who attended Broadway plays. Known for being one of the first districts to be lit with electric lights dating as far back as the 1890s, this industry, and this street, remain very important in American culture to this day.

Question 61. According to the monologue, which is one definition of the word Broadway?

- a) A wide road which is about 20 kilometers long
- b) The northernmost tip of the island of Manhattan
- c) A famous theater in the center of New York City
- d) A trail used by Native Americans in the 1890s

Question 62. According to the monologue, which one of the statements is correct?

- a) Ticket sales for Broadway plays showed a slight decrease in 2018.
- b) Broadway is known as the first district in the U.S. to be lit with gas lights.
- c) There were more than 1 billion theater-goers to Broadway in 2018.
- d) Broadway has been an important part of American culture.
